Math 1710.001; M-F 8:00 – 8:50AM
Fall 2009

Instructor: Neeraj Bajracharya
E-mail: neeraj@unt.edu
Office Hours: TW 2:00-4:00 PM and by appointment
Required Text: Thomas' Calculus, 11th Edition, by Thomas, Finney and Weir
Prerequisites: Math 1650 with C or better grade
Course website: www.math.unt.edu/~nb0042

Grading: There will be a total of 600 points available in this course. The points will come from homework, weekly quizzes, tests and final. Home works will be collected every Tuesday and Friday, except for week one and worth 10 points each. Homework assignments must be stapled in order, easy to read, and labeled with your name, class, section number, and the assignment number. Don't turn in work that is messy. There will be three fifty-minute long in-class tests. Each tests worth 100 points and the Final exam worth 100 points as well. There are no make-up exams except for emergencies, and late homework will not be accepted. If you miss an exam, you will receive a zero.

Grading Scale:

90-100%	A
80-89%	B
70-79%	C
60-69%	D
0-59%	F

Test and Final Schedule:

Test1	Tue, Sep. 22
Test2	Fri, Oct. 16
Test3	Thu, Nov. 12
Final	Mon, Dec 14 from 8:00 to 10:00 AM

Comments:

- Attendance is mandatory.
- It is a very good idea to read about the next day's lecture before that lecture occurs because it helps enforce the ideas developed in class.
- You can discuss your assignments with others to develop a good understanding of the subject. However, if you copy your friends' work or copy out of solution manuals, this will not help you do well on tests and final. Please do your own work.
- Take advantage of the help available for this course. Use my office hours and Math Lab.

The UNT Math Lab is located in GAB 440
